Dear Sir,

Will you be good enough to advise me if there is any magazine published in the interest of the coin collector and if so, the name and address of such a publication.

Thanking you in anticipation,

Dear Sir:

In response to your letter of July 31st, I believe The Numismatist is such a periodical as you desire, and, under separate cover, I am sending you a sample copy of one of the back numbers.

If you are interested in numismatics, perhaps you would care to consider an invitation to become an Associate Member of our Society, whereby you would receive all our publications free. The dues are but Five Dollars annually. I am enclosing an application form which I should be glad to have you fill out and return to me, should you decide to affiliate yourself with this Society.

Very truly yours,

Secretary

Dear Sir,

I thank you for your letter of August First, also sample copy of "The Numismatist" which appears to be the magazine I want. I thank you also for your invitation to become a member of your Society but I do not feel justified in doing so at the present time. Should conditions for me change in the near future I will probably take the matter up with you again.

Assuring you of my

Appreciation of your interest in my inquiry, I remain, Yours very truly,

My Dear Mr. Noe,

I have just received a bill for my 1925 dues to the Society and am writing to ask you for some information.

Since becoming a member last year certain circumstances have arisen which make it necessary for me to do all I can to reduce my expenses to a minimum and I therefore feel that I should resign. In view however, of the fact that my dues are now due and payable

I am wondering if my resignation at this time would be in order and not having a copy of the By-Laws I do not know what the rule is on this subject.

Regretting that any emergency should have arisen which calls for my severing my association with the Society, I remain,

yours very truly,

Arthur H. Hagemeyer

Dear Mr. Hagemeyer:

Your letter of January 2nd is at hand, and our By-Laws do provide that we may not accept the resignation of a member if dues for the current year are unpaid. I will, however, present your letter at the next meeting of our Council; and if they decide to accept your resignation as though it had been presented before the first of the year, I will so inform you.

Very truly yours,

Secretary
